

 Equinox presents:

welcome to the Neo Golden Age
A Sound Exposure Vol. 1 / Split 7"

Following up the previous 12" EP with tracks by Arcsin, Emynd, Danny Decock and Aqua Luminus this second release continues the "Welcome to the Neo Golden Age" series on Equinox Records. Now, the beautifully packed clear vinyl 7" record features two new artists of the Equinox family: DJ Scientist and Mnemotrauma

Clear vinyl in clear sleeve and paper inlay

DJ Scientist / Mnemotrauma Split 7"

On Side A, DJ Scientist sets the pace with „Anything About Nothing“ – a disturbing mix of hard hitting organic drums and desperately screaming psychedelica samples.

On the flip, a hypnotically moaning voice accompanied by a hauling downtempo drumbeat forces its way into the listeners ears. The intruder goes by the name of Mnemotrauma who may be known for his releases on the avant-garde Subversiv Records and who has just recently teamed up with L.A.'s Shape Shifters crew for just this purpose. Here, his track "Waiting for the Sun" will make you eagerly await the upcoming Double LP Equinox label compilation.

Record stores should file this under: Abstract Beats, Headz, Instrumental Hip-Hop, Hip-Hop or Downbeat.

DJ Scientist / Mnemotrauma Split 7"

Label: Equinox Records

Cat. Nr.: eqx-003

Format: 7"

Release Date: 14.02.2005

Distribution: Kudos Records / www.kudosrecords.co.uk

Distribution Germany: Hausmusik / www.hausmusik.com

Tracklist:

A |

DJ Scientist „Anything About Nothing“

B |

Mnemotrauma „Waiting for the Sun“