Geste – Jaw Breaker EP

What we have here could easily be the most adventurous IDM / electronic EP release this year.

Before creating the glitchiest electronic music known to computers and men, Geste aka Francois-Charles Domergue was already an accomplished bass player in various bands, playing music from hardcore punk to post rock. Those influences are still alive in the ferocious energy of the music he does today, leading to a completely unique sound and approach that results in an astonishing 4 track debut.

Introduced by a lullaby-like melody, the title track on this EP soon turns into a „Jaw Breaker“; in Geste’s own words: „a sweaty dance to save your life.“ This is the one track that will make your speakers scream „LOUD!!!!“

While „Ohm Sick“ continues in the same vein of „Jaw Breaker“’s astonishing synth work, it takes Geste’s hardcore approach to song programming to a new level: the beat builds up tension second after second and every DJ will hear the crowd yearning for more.

The next track „André (Part II)“ is pure and raw beauty. Its edgy bassline challenges the spheric keyboard melodies to make it another incredible song.

Finally, the new revised version of the thrilling “Octobre (Clouds Gone)” (digital only track, previously released on the “One Year & A Day” compilation) was mixed differently, puts more focus on the drums and makes up a perfect ending for this EP!

All four tracks prove that technically and musically Geste is at the forefront of today’s IDM producers and one of the most promising artists of the European electronic scene.
